V1

          C1                  F
Sometimes at night I sit alone

          E1                  G
Turn out the lights, put away my phone
And I swear I hear you breathing deep
Do you do that too or is that just me

CH

  D   C2   B   A1   E2   D   C2
If I   can't   be   where   you   re   -   side
      D   C2   B   A1   E2   D   C2
Then I   claim   where   you   stand   as   mine
          F      E1      G
Cause I find my home goes with you

V2

I fear you'll drift if I don't hold tight
I got it in my head that somehow you're mine

Shall I use my palm and try to drink the sea?
Even if I could, it would never be

BR

C2      E1                  G
I'm splintered and broken

C2      E1                  G
I'm split right in two

C2      E1                  G
I'll pick up these pieces

C2      E1                  G
And build it with you

C2      E1      G      C2
If only    in my mind

OUT

                F          E1                  G
Cause I find my home goes with you

A2      F                  G
I find my home goes with you
